

F. Allen Richburg II, M.D., M.S, F.A.A.F.P., F.A.S.L.M.S.

San Diego Sports Medicine and Family Health Center

Assistant Clinical Professor, University California, San Diego, School of Medicine, Department of Family Medicine, non-salaried

Clinical Instructor and Team Physician San Diego State University

U.S. Olympic Training Center, Chula Vista, Physician

Education:

California State University, Fresno, Bachelor of Arts, Biology, 1988

Loma Linda University, Masters of Science, Anatomy, 1990

Loma Linda University, Medical Doctorate, 1994

U.C.L.A., Santa Monica Hospital Family Practice Residency, 1997

Stanford University, San Diego Sports Medicine, Fellowship, 1998

Fellow of the American Academy of Family Practice

Fellow of the American Society of Laser Medicine and Surgery

Personal Sports and Bicycling Experience:

Wrestling, Fresno State University, Freshman All-American, National Strength and Conditioning All-American, PAC-10 Champion, Most wins in school history 1988.

Triathlon 1984 – 1988.

Bicycle Racing (Road and Track) 1988 – Present:

U.S.C.F. National Champion, Masters 2001

10 U.S.C.F. National Championship Medals

Raced in Belgium, Germany and Italy

Raced on the 7-up Professional Bicycling Team

Bicycling Medicine Experience:

7-up Professional Bicycling Team Physician, 1999

Mercury Professional Bicycling Team Physician, 2000-2002

Sea Silver Professional Bicycling Team Physician, 2005

SuccessfulLiving.com Professional Bicycling Team Physician, 2006

San Diego Velodrome Physician

Care for many other elite and amateur Bicyclists and Triathletes